If the business of liquor selling was immoral, how was it that hundreds of clubs in Brooklyn sold liquor and paid no license fees. Wine and beer, the speaker maintained, were just as necessary as tea and coffee.

DISPUTING OVER A FRANCHISE. ALDERMEN CHARGED WITH IGNORING AN OF-FER OF $20,000 FROM A STREET RAIL-WAY COMPANY.

The trial of the suit brought by John Adamson, of Union-st., to set aside the grant of a franchise by the Board of Aldermen last summer for a street railroad in that street to the Union Railroad Company. over the veto of Mayor Boody, and in opposition to the offer of $80,000 for the franchise by another company, was began in the Supreme Court before Judge Cullen Yesterday. The Aldermen who voted to grant the franchise are among the defendants. The suit was rought to declare the franchise illegal and prevent tork under it, and if it is declared vaile to compel to the city. W. J. Gaynor opened the case for the plaintiff and offered a large amount of documentary fidence. E. M. Grant, his partner, was the first finess, and testified to appearing as counsel for the Works Construction Company. The Equity Company has pipes laid in Grand-st., Broadway and Flushing-ave., in the heart of the district of the Williamsburg Gas Company. The price charged by the latter com-pany per thousand cubic feet is $1.25. Secretary Flodgett, of the Williamsburg Company, refused to say what steps his company would take in the matter.

I. D. Folkart, a jeweller at No. 473 Fulton-st., was swindled last January by two young men who passed a counterfelt $50 bill on him in payment for a watch and a diamond ring. Yesterday the two men entered the store and offered the watch for sale, Mr. Folkart recognized them and managed to get between them and the door, on the plea of examining the watch, and locked it. Then he sent for a detective and placed them under arrest. They gave the names of David Bartholomew, No. 128 Fleet-st., and Frank H. Haistead. No. 547 St. Marks's Place, and denied any knowledge of the bill. The prisoners were arraigned in the United States Court, and committed to juil in default of $1,000 ball each. The trustees of "The Journal of Commerce ported to the Supreme Court in the matter of the proceedings to wind up the old corporation that it had been agreed by the stockholders who hold the ma-jority interest to issue new stock to the amount of $512,000. Counsel for the estate of John W. Stickney, who died since the last hearing, objected, and asked that opportunity be allowed for the presentation of a cash offer, or to permit a sale by auction. It was finally referred to counsel for settlement.

A certificate of reasonable doubt was granted yes case of Dr. Van Zile, who is serving a sentence for bail, pending an application for a new trial.

A story was told to the police by Mrs. Henry Sonnenstrahl, of No. 60 Washington-ave., that is burglar wearing a mask entered her husband's greeer at that number late Wednesday night, drew a pistol and ordered her to open the safe. She told him it was open, and while he was at it she escaped. When she returned he had gone, and had taken nothing.

The police discredit the story.

NEWS FROM NEW-JERSEY.

The delegates elected at the Republican primaries for Freeholders in Essex County on Wednesday night are all anti-racetrack men. It was the determination of Republican citizens that there should be no doubt about the character of the Republican Freeholders to be elected, and trusty men were elected in the primaries by large majorities. The church people and the Law and Order League will take part in the Democratic primaries to be held next week. The Republican nominating conventions will be held on Monday next.

Monday next.

The barn of Thomas Fitzpatrick, at Lyons Farms, near Elizabeth, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday night. Twenty cows and two horses were burned together with much stock and material. The low is about $2,000, and is covered by insurance.

The funeral of Samuel Boardman, the retired lawyer, who died on Tuesday aign, will take place at No. 88 North Nuthest, at 11 a.m. to-day.

The Essex County Grand Jury, in their presentment yesterday afternoon, demanded that the centre poles used for the electric cars be removed to the curb line, and that, pending their removal, extraordinary precautions should be taken by the company. Tais demand is made in view of the many fatal accidents that have occurred.

There was a crowd of Atlantic City people in Jersey City resterday. They came to protest before the Riparian Commissioners against the proposed per cent of this expense was directly chargeable to drinking. The restriction of the number of licenses grant to the Atlantic Ocean Railway Company of the right to build an elevated railroad along the shore front of Atlantic City. Prosecutor samuel E. Perry said that the road would cut the city on from the ocean, shut out the view, destroy the bathing facilities and practically make the city an inland matter, and the need of lessening the evils refrom the drink habit. He hoped the plan paid no license fees. Wine and beer, the speaker maintained, were just as necessary as tea and coffee. He argued that the license fees should not be increased. The present system was satisfactory to the majority, and should be maintained.

Mr. Our thought that a business contributing largely to crime should contribute a proper proportion to the revenues of the city. The experiment of high license fees had worked well in other cities. The license fees had worked well in other cities. The sale of liquor should be properly restrained and the burdens of taxation equalized.

Mr. Jenkins believed the fees for licenses to sell intoxicating liquors should be large, and for bear small. The screen doors of liquor shops should be abolished. The Mayor closed the conference by saying that the whole matter would be carefully considered before decision was reached.

RETHERFORD.

The prompt action of an engineer to applying alr-brakes prevented a serious accident on the Eric Rail-road yesterdey afternoon. A train from Jersey City, when half way to Rutherford, left the track just bewhen half way to Autorious, fore reaching the bridge over the Hackensack River, owing, it is said, to an open switch. The train ran perilously near the edge of the bridge before the airbrakes stopped it. The passengers rushed to the platforms, but no one was fujured. Travel was delayed about half an hour.

EPWORTH LEAGUE CONVENTION.

The fourth annual convention of the New-York District, New-York Conference, Epworth League, was held yesterday alternoon and evening in the Eighteenth Street Methodist Episcopal Church, No. 307 West Tenth-st. About two hundred delegates were present.

The Rev. J. A. B. Wilson, pastor of the church, made the address of welcome, and the Rev. J. E. Price, the president of the District League, responded for the delegates. The various chapters then reported progress, after which Mrs. E. A. Wheeler made an address on "The Epworth League Hospital for St. Christopher's Home." Other speakers were Nelson Chandler, of the Washington Square Chapter; Mrs. Lillian Redfern, of the Park-ave. Chapter. A discussion of various topics followed.

The Rev. Dr. J. E. Price presided at the evening session. The first part of the evening session was devoted to reports of committees and the election of officers. The following officers were elected: The Rev. Dr. J. E. Price, president; Charles W. Erskine, first-vice-president; Mrs. E. W. Lincoln, second vice-president; Miss Alice L. A. Drew, third vice-president: A. Stoney, corresponding secretary; Mr. Lovett, recording secretary; Mr. Tenken, treasurer. Addresses were delivered by the Rev.
